

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 8 Review

Test Your Knowledge

Part 1: True or False

Instructions

Read each statement below, then select True or False.

1. Videotaping oral presentations helps a speaker to evaluate his or her performance analytically and critically.
True  False
2. It is not necessary to include verbal communication strategies when delivering informal presentations.
True  False
3. Media literacy strategies help you identify credibility of primary and secondary sources to use in informal presentations.
True  False
4. When researching topics for the preparation of oral communication, it is helpful to consider audience, purpose, occasion, primary and secondary sources, and specific topics.
True  False
5. Presenters do not need to introduce a main topic in an informal presentation.
True  False
6. Notes include specific dialogue and phrases you intend to communicate in a presentation.
True  False
7. A visual aid is an instructional device—such as a chart, map, or model—that appeals to the purpose of a presentation.
True  False
8. It is important to organize and evaluate oral information when communicating in professional settings.
True  False
9. Supporting points are the pieces of information that help prove, validate, or explain the main topic of a presentation.
True  False
10. Speakers do not need to provide credit for information sources used in a presentation.
True  False

